Neighborhood News

was a special feature.

At the January business meeting the home of J. W. Seay, the Christian Endeavor Society of Falls Church elect-

Miss Julia Scott and brother, William Scott, of Kentucky, were guests Christ mas week of Miss Poston.

The Misses Seay had as their guests this week Miss Gertrude Newton and Miss Lottie Crupper, of Alexandria.

Miss Tracy Holsinger, of Sterling, Va., was the guest of Mrs. M. Potter, of Next English, week

J. Cris Parrott, after several months visit to Southern and Western States, is at his Falls Church home.

DAUGHTER COMES

ROCKVILLE, Jan. 4,-Mrs. Bessie

Mrs. Rebecca Morrison entertained her children and grandchildren at a family reunion on the first day of the new year, a custom which she has observed for many years. Mrs. Morrison is an octogenarian.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corbett and Mrs Adams, of Washington, were holiday guests of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis.

The Rev. R. A. Smith, who was form erly known as "the Western cowboy preacher." has resigned as pastor of the Barnesville, Travillah, Upper Seneca, and Germantown Baptist Churches He has accepted a call to Georgia.

Mrs. Henry Viett, of this place.

was the guest of M. East End, last week.

TO EXAMINE SITES HOLDS ITS MEETING

Dr. Curtis and Citizens' Committee Arrange for Meeting.

Dr. Curtis, of the Washington Play Grounds Association, has notified the committee of Anacostia citizens having the matter in charge that he is now prepared to visit the town and examine into the conditions and available grounds that have been put forth in connection with the effort, now under connection with the effort, now under way to establish a play ground in this section of the District. Dr. Joseph J. Mundell, the chairman of the committee referred to, and Dr. James A. Watson, the president of the Anacostia Citizens' Association, have arranged to meet Dr. Curtis and go over the situation with in Maple avenue.

Miss Susie Smith is spending the holidays with her brother, Andrew Smith, in Maple avenue.

The Men's Brotherhood of the Anacostia Baptist Church held watch-night services beginning at 9 o'clock, last Tuesday evening, in the edifice, corner Jefferson and Fillmore streets, and many members of the congregation were present and remained until the advent of the new year. The exercises were opened with singing by the men's choir. The Rev. James R. Edwards, the pastor, addressed the gathering. The Rev. H. M. Green, formerly pastor of the church out now stationed in Texas, also addressed the congregation. Solos were rendered by Miss Emma Robey, Howard and Ridgely Griffith, Arthur Ferguson and Conrad and Donald Paxton. tations were given by Miss Addie Dean and Miss Emma Hollows. L. E. Cookman presided at the organ as accompanist. Refreshments were served. Mrs. S. M. Fillins and Miss Lulu Beyer entertained their Sunday school classes of Esther Memorial Chapel at the former's residence on Nichols ave nue Thursday evening. The juveniles were amused by playing various games, among them the baby game in which Charles Woltz, Hazel Bennett, and Stella Parker received the first prize, and Edward Eaton and Caroline Cleeves the second prize. The children were seated around the Christmas tree, which was beautifully illuminated with electric lights, when Santa Claus made his appearance and little tokens were presented to each one by him. After refreshments were served each received as favors little snowballs filled (with candy. Those present were Misses Hazel Bennett, Gladys Porter, Stella Parker, Ethel Pumphrey, Helen Biggs, Eunice Allen, Dorothy Beall, Elsie Cowan, Madeline Myers, Nellie Gutman, Helen Selby, Lillian Selby, Ruth Selby, Edna Riggs, Zella Frye, Katherine Stroble, Marie Swain, Margaret Fletch-Stroble, Marie Swain, Margaret Fletcher, Elizabeth Eaton. Anna McKenna. Caroline Cleeves, Jeannette Chiles, Sarah Hellar, and Dorothy Eggleston; Edward Eaton, Ralph Talbert, Bernard Pumphrey, Maurice Fillins, Vernon Mathison, Charles Woltz, Arthur Fillins, Fred Greim, George Grelm, William Fergusch, and Walter Tice.

The German Orphan Asylum, on Harrison street extended, held its annual holiday exercises last Sunday after-noon. The children's celebration took place in the west hall of the asylum, where a section of the Marine Band furnished music. President Imhof and Simon Wolf, of the board of directors, made addresses. The distribution of the presents was conducted by Mrs. Gerstenberg, Mrs. Botsch, Mrs. Coomes and Mrs. Muchlelsen. The children reand Mrs. Muchlelsen. The children re-ceived toys of various sorts, candy, and fruit, and articles of wearing apparel. In the opposite hall the members of the Ladles' Aid Society served supper. A portion of the repast was sent to the residents of the Ruppert Home for the Aged and Infirm. William F. Meyers acted as pianist for the children's en-tertainment.

A Christmas service for the benefit of the convalescent inmates and the employes of St. Elizabeth's Asylum was ployes of St. Elizabeth's Asylum was held last Sunday afternoon in the chapel hall, at 3 o'clock. The Rev. Charles O. Isaac, paster of the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church, delivered an address. The choir of the hospital was augmented by Mrs. Charles F. Linger, G. Watson, Isaac, and Daniel C. Smithson, rendered a splendid program.

The Willing Workers' Class of the Btptist Church held a watch-night meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Dent, 117 Jefferson street. Instrumental music was rendered during the evening by Mrs. Ladue McGill and Eugene Cookman. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Dent and family, Miss Edna Cookman, the teacher of the class; Misses Nora Whaley, Edna Caroll, N. Abbott, Ora Whaley, Lucy Reed, Viola Dameron, Textic Cookman, Mr. and Wrs. Sisson, Mr. and Cashell, and Mrs. R. H. Stokes. the evening by Mrs. Ladue McGill and Eugene Cookman. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Dent and family. Miss Edna Cookman. the teacher of the class; Misses Nora Whaley, Edna Carroll, Helen Carroll, N. Abbott, Ora. Whaley, Lucy Reed, Viola Dameron, Jennie Cookman, Mira Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. Ladue McGill, and Messrs. Eugene Cookman, Hatcher Cookman, Howard Griffith, Charles Elzter, Norman Green, Edgar R. Balderston, and Millard Hayney, Refreshments were served.

A party of young folk were pleasantly entertained at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Moore, 427 Monroe street, last Saturday evening, Music and dancing occupied the early hours of the evening, following which a supper was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Moore, Catharine A. Talburtt, Misses Mary Talburtt, Neota Lansdale, Fanny Lansdale, Ethel Moore, Arthur Lansdale, Dr. J. Albert Potter, Roger Moore, George Moore, and Allston Moore.

Montgomery Lodge of Masons, of Rockville, has elected the following officers: Worshipful master, Dr. George E. Lewis; serior warden, Robert G. Hilton; secretary, James F. Allen; treasurer, Richard H. Stokes. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tolson are visiting relatives here during the Christmas holidays.

Anacostia Falls Church Brookland CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR PHUNNY PHELLOWS

The "Phunny Phellows" Club was An interesting Christian Endeavor entertained at a banquet given at the meeting was held Sunday evening in the chapel of the Presbyterian Church. home of Eugene Burgess, of Hyatts-

> William Webber, of Baltimore, was the guest of Mrs. Jaeger, of Ninth street, last week.

> Mrs. Wise, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. Zollinger.

> Miss Mary Barnholt, of Philadelphia is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Barnholt, of Eighteenth street. Miss Helen Ball also a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Barn-

Miss Nan Seay entertained the Christian Endeavor music committee at her home on Great Falls street Saturday Marvin McLain accompanied his famlly to Texas, where they will remain during the winter. Mr. McLain will return after a month's stay.

> Mrs. Philip Jullien, of New York, wh has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jeseph Henry, of Newton Sireet, has gone to South Carolina.

> Mr. and Mrs. William Parish and hildren are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Etz, of Monroe street

J. B. Coghill, of Henderson, N. C., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. George M. Newell, on Washington street. Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood entertained a large number of friends with a watch party given in honor of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood entertaine One of the most enjoyable events during the holidays was a dance given by Miss McGroarty Monday evening at her home on Little Falls street. The invited guests were Miss Edith Moore, Miss Jennie Moyer, Miss Bertha Garner, Miss Jennie Moyer, Miss Eleih Nicholson, James Luttrell, Mr. Ballinger, Mr. Van Bleck, of Washington; J. B. Coghill, of Henderson, N. C.; Mr. Quick, Mr. and Mrs. John Bethune, and Mr. and Mrs. John Bethune, and Mr. and Mrs. John Bethune, and Mr. and Mrs. Shipley, and Walter Middlekauff. Those present were: Miss Flor ence Jackson, Miss Maud Jackson, Miss London by Fred Terry and Julia Neil-

Mrs. Charles K. Hetfield, of Lawren Miss Margaret Copper entertained her friends Wednesday evening at a dance. Miss Kathaleen McGroarty gave a de-lightful dance Tuesday evening. treet, entertained a number of friend t a card party Saturday afternoon in onor of her guest, Miss Platt, of New Mrs. J. A. Dickerson gave a party Tuesday evening at her home on Wash-ington street in honor of her niece, Miss Harvey, of Washington. H. W. Byrne, who has recently moved from Arnandale, Va., to Falls Church, has been elected town sergeant.

Mr. and Mrs. Cheesman gave a dance ast Friday evening in honor of their Sixteen members recently elected to Lodge No. 11, Odd Fellows, have had the second degree conferred upon by the team of Potomac Lodge, of Alexandria, after which a banquet was given.

daughter. Those present were: Miss Helen Molster, Miss Maud Jackson, Miss Florence Jackson, Miss Helen Moren, Miss Edna Crawford, Miss Amelia Etz, Miss Mamie Milliagran. Amelia Etz, Miss Mamie Millington, the Misses Sarah and Edyth Brown, Ralph Molster, Louis Crook, and Evan Jackson.
Miss Rachel Johnson entertained at a

H. W. Gardes, of Washington, D. C., purchased a house and lot from M. T. Byrne, of West End. Mrs. James A. Dickinson, of Washington street, gave a leap year party Thursday evening to introduce her cousins, the Misses Pearl Duckett and Neilie Loveless, of Washington. A musical program was followed by the ladies asking in writing, under nommes de plume, the shrinking gentlemen to be "theirs."

Miss Rachel Johnson entertained at a watch party. Those present were Miss Rebecca Waodward, the Misses Jean and Elizabeth Molster, Miss Rosina Bakersmith, Miss Violet Parker, Miss Kathersine Pherson, Miss Helen Barnholt, Miss Winifred Barnholt, Miss Rebecca Lenon, Miss Marie Meyers, Miss Lesley Sargent, Earl Simons, Horace Woodward, Robert Raiph, and Raymond McGee, and others.

Miss Washington, of Twelfth street; Refreshments appropriate to the occasion were served a la buffet. honor of Miss Platt and the Messra. Gallagher who have been the guests of Mrs. Charles K. Hetfield, of Law-rence street.

The Saturday Night Card Club met it the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Cheesman, of Newton street.

Brookland Literary Society last Friday

SPANISH COOKING

DIFFERENT FROM OTHERS

Larkins and her infant son, of Oakland Cal., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Spanish cooking is very different from either the English or French and much of it is so well worth a trial that I have Harry A. Dawson and family, who been tempted to give the following have been living in Washington for sevrecipes, many of which came from the eral months have decided to return to Rockville. Mrs. Dawson and their chil-dren are visiting friends in Pennsyl-favor: Pacific coast, where they are in great

E. Bruce Flack, wife, and son, who have been with friends in this county for a fortnight, will depart early next week for their home in Los Angeles, Cal.

The famous Spanish dish known as "Olla Podrida" is not apt to find favor outsides of its own country. When kept too long it has a disagreeable odor, from which it derives its name, which signifies "putrid mixture." Charcoal is used in Spain for cooking instead of wood or gas. Earthenware takes the place of metal, and olive oil of butter for all frying purposes.

Cold vegetables are thrown in hot oil after they have been rolled in batter.

Simmer slowly and when ready to

The vegetables used in the soup are put in a vegetable dish and are eaten separately.

James A. Beall has recently returned to his home from a hunting expedition in St. Mary's county, Maryland.

A Courtland Brooks has gone to his former home in Bridgeport, N. J., to remain during the Christmas holidays.

William B. Downey has reached home for a brief vacation from St. Charles College, Baltimore, and is visiting his on Jackson street.

Mrs. H. G. Litch has gone to Brook-lyn, N. Y.

Hilton; secretary, James F. Allen; treasurer, Richard H. Stokes.

The last meeting of the Rockville to he Rockville woman's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Robert N. Bayles. Mrs. Otho H. W. Talbott conducted an interesting roundtable.

The last meeting of the Rockville Woman's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Robert N. Bayles. Mrs. Otho H. W. Talbott conducted an interesting roundtable.

The last meeting of the Rockville Woman's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Robert N. Bayles. Mrs. Otho H. W. Talbott conducted an interesting roundtable.

The last meeting of the Rockville Woman's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Robert N. Bayles. Mrs. Otho H. W. Talbott conducted an interesting roundtable.

The last meeting of the Rockville Reorganization of the Chinese army, which began three years ago, is making steady headway. The Peiho army is already completely organized. It consists of three divisions of 9,000 men dack, formed on the European model. To this Pelho army of thirty-six infancach, which will begin and six engineer battalions, there is a preserve of 40,000 trained and disciplined were soldiers. Six other divisions, more or parents, Mr, and Mrs. Bryan Downey, on Jackson street.

Mrs. H. G. Litch has gone to Brook-lynn, N. Y.

Work impresario, will be in attendant the holidays. A reserved with the benefit of the Chinese army, which will be fined to home of the Chinese army, which will be fined to home of the Chinese army, which will be fined to home of the Chinese army, which will be fined to home of the Chinese army, which will be fined to home of the Chinese army, which will be fined to home of the Chinese army, t

NOTES OF THE STAGE

(Continued from Third Page) ard actor, formerly with Richard Mansficid's company, will give a dramatic and musical recital at Emmanue Church, on Washington street, for the benefit of the church. Mr. Lyon will tired of the distinction that has long

Charles E. Blaney offers to the patrons of the New Academy for the week of January 13 his latest play, entitled "Parted on Her Bridal Tour," which is a dramatization of Laura Jean Libbey's famous novel, "Miss Middle-

The lovers of the poetic drama and of in the season to appear in a number of her most successful roles. The large White Whittlesey, who plays the lover in "Gloria," and Frederic Lewis, who will play the roles essayed by Mr. ter of all he surveys."
Sothern during the period when Mr. Sothern and Miss Marlowe were co-

Annie Russell and Carlotta Nillson to Chase's next week. are under consideration for the chief role in "Paid in Full," which was reto some changes in the cast before be ing taken into New York.

Charles Cherry, leading man with Maxine Elliott, has recovered from a Mr. Cherry's absence from the cast some time, and is again in vaudeville gave a very clever actor, Dallas Cairns, an opportunity to play an excellent role.

"That Little Affair at Boyd's," Wile produced January 6, according to the Mr. and Mrs. William Galbrith, of Monroe and Fourteenth streets, enter-tained a number of friends Friday evening.

> "Matt o' Merrymount," a play by Evelyn Greenleaf Sutherland and Beulah Dix, will be produced shortly in What has ben conceded one of the greatest comedy successes in the past several years will come to the Columwhen Henry B. Harris will present Rose Stahl in James Forbes' comedy, "The Chorus Lady." The play is in its second year of its enormous success, having emained in New York city alone for a period of nine months. "The Chorus Lady" is in four acts, the first repre-York city. Those present were: Miss M. Burr, Miss Helen Molster, Miss Hernadine Woodward, Miss May Henry, Miss Theresa Henry, Miss Mamle Clark, Miss Katherine Washington, and Mrs. Joseph Henry. ing room of a chorus lady making up or the stage. The third is the bachelor quarters of a man-about-to-vn while the fourth act is at the boarding nouse of Patricia O'Brien, a chorus girl.

wold's charming little one act play, and is said to have a remarkable voice, long ago approved Margaret Mayo's adaptation of "La Gloconda."

ton more than three months each, will cast, and brightened up the production be seen at the National during the with successful results. week of January 13. In "The Red Mill," Henry Blossom, the author, and Victor Herbert, the composer, have, it is con-Mrs. C. P. Post, who has been the guest of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fost, of Newton street, for the last few weeks, has returned to her home in New York.

Ceded, most happily blended sentiment, fun and melody, and have provided the ertswhile stars of "The Wizard of Oz," Montgomery and Stone, with a magnificent vehicle. seded, most happily blended sentiment, ertswhile stars of "The Wizard of Oz." ture will probably tell another tale.

> "The New York Idea," which many of the London critics failed to like, is not o be taken off in that city as heralded. All of a sudden the London playgoing public awoke to the fact that a really clever play was in its midst and the omedy will continue with Ellis Jeffreys in the role played on this side by Mrs. Fiske.

Nat Goodwin is the latest star to go under the management of Liebler & Co. It is announced that he will begin a contract covering a number of ears with this firm next season when ne will be seen in a new play.

Dorothy Donnelly, who was seen here is the daughter of the boardinghouse keeper in "The Little Grey Lady," is playing the role of Sherley Rossmore offi after they have been rolled in batter.

The favorite soup of the Spanish people has garlic and onion as a foundation. Garlic is universally used and also finds favor among the French and Italians in a modified degree.

This soup is made in the "puchera," or earthen pan, which is filled with ordinary stock, to which is added a little vinegar, onion, and garlic fried previously in olive oil.

A stewing chicken or any scraps of beef or mutton, with the bones cut into square pieces should also be added. Season with pepper, salt, and a few red peppers. Season with pepper, sait, and a few red peppers.

All soup vegetables used in our own scup should be used. The "garbanzos" bright comedy, "The Lady Across the Hall:" Holden's mannikins, a foreign novelty of extraordinary character; the hour before the soup is to be sent to table. French spectacular artist in a sensa-tional diversion; Schenk brothers, an-other famous Continental act from the Circus Carre, Amsterdam; Barr and Evans; and "Under False Colors" mo-tion pictures.

a haunted mill. The escape is made by means of the sails of the mill, on which the players descend.

sing several operatic selections and give been his—the original Little Lord Faunfour dramatic readings, assisted by the condition of the condi ly's" locks are of the shade that sug-

"The Man of the Hour" will soon end its long New York run at the Astor Theater, having enjoyed the longest onsecutive engagement of any low before the Broadway public. the only play now in New York that Shakespeare will no doubt be glad to has lasted over last season at the same hear that Miss Marlowe intends later theater.

The real boss of P. H. Sullivan's comcompany Miss Marlowe has engaged pany, which presents "The Cowboy and shows that she is looking ahead toward the Squaw" at the New Academy this playing Juliet, Katherine, and Viola, week, is "Calleo," a big 1,600-pound She has two leading men, for instance, steer. He does not make his appearance on the stage until the finale of the

> Harry Bulger at one time kept a news stand in Zanesville, Ohio. Now he is a vaudeville star, and is coming

An early appearance will be made cently presented, but which will under- at Chase's by Jean Marcel's Living tently presented, but which will under- at Chase's by Jean Marcel's Living Masterpieces of Art, with a company of twenty artists and poseurs.

Vinie Daly, the pretty daughter of here. Lizzie Daly, of the famous Daly theaisprained ankle, and has resumed his rical family, has forsaken musical com-role in "Under the Greenwood Tree." edy, in which she has been appearing

Marie Lloyd, the celebrated English music hall comedienne, whose popu-larity since she came to this country iam Gillette's latest comedy, will not has eclipsed even that of Vesta Victoria, will be presented at Chare's next

When May Irwin is at Chase's next tunity to better it, and it will protably week she will be asked to sing her be several weeks before the play is phenomenal success, "The New Bully." Another hit she will exploit will be "I'm Afraid to Come Home in the Dark."

Chase's announces the presentation in February next of Mme. Zelie De Lussan, the famous grand opera prima

William Hawtrey, the English come dian, is back in America, and it looks as if he purposes becoming a fixtue bia for a week beginning January 13, as he has gone into vaudeville, and comes to Chase's in February.

> The choir in the effective Grac Church scene in Denman Thompson's "The Old Homestead," which is at the Columbia this week, is composed of twenty picked voices.

Former Manager Eugene Tompkins, of the Boston Theater and the Academy of Music, in New York city, says that the gross receipts of "The Old Home-stead" at the two theaters up to the presen time aggregate nearly a million and a half dollars.

Arnold Daly will inaugurate a starring our under the direction of Liebler &

"The Red Mill," in which Montgomery John C. Fisher, is one of the big sucand Stone enjoyed a spectacularly successes of New York. B. C. Whitney cessful career in New York city for took over the musical comedy some nearly a year and in Chicago and Bos- months ago, added new people to the the season, will begin its road tour January 6 at the Tremont Theater, Boston.

Anna John and Louise Galloway, bot Anna John and Louise Galloway, both of whom have at various times been members of stock companies at the Columbia Theater, have joined the Bellows-Spencer stock company in Rochester, N. Y. Walter Clarke Bellows, stage director of the company, formerly held a similar position in the permanen; stock company at the Lafayette—now the Belasco—in Washington.

It is now said that Alla Nazimova will not play "Three Weeks," Mrs. Elinor Glyn's famous story, but that either Virginia Harned or Cecilia Loftus will be seen in the chief role.

WARNING TO PARENTS.

The Milk Conference appointed by the District Commissioners, in view of the MANY DANGERS OF RAW MILK, has recommended the home past-urizing of all raw milk by bringing it to the boiling point, then withdraw, cool, and keep cold until used.

The Conference has thereby endorsed the advice given by this Society for a number of years to

SCALD ALL MILE

Parents are particularly warned against the erroneous opinion held by some that rizing affects either the digestibility or the nutritive value of the milk, or that as a rule it will produce any bad effects whatsoever.

> SOCIETY FOR PREVENTION OF SICKNESS.

E. BERLINER, Secretary

DABOR W

Wallace Eddinger, now playing with Robert Edeson in "Classmates," has

Not to Get Big

Slice.

Officials of the International Associ ion of Machinists, which organization has 2,000 members employed in the Washington Gun Factory, have the assurance of the officials of the Navy Department that the movement started at the opening of the Sixtleth Congress to place a large slice of the gun con struction for the two big battleship of the Navy, now under construction in the Boston and New York yards has been dropped, and all the work

Washington merchants and landlord will benefit by the work remaining

Industrial Trades Parade

To Boom "Greater Washington"

Leaders of the local labor move are determined that there shall be an industrial trades parade early next spring whether the present building trades strike is ended by that time or not. Steps to that end are now being taken. The men who will push this taken. The men who will push this enterprise, encouraged by the recent massive parade of the labor organizations, feel sure that they can put 25,000 union labor men in the 'parade, and also induce many of the business interests to add floats.

The object of the parade will be to attract attention to the city as an industrial and business center as a means of advertising and promoting the move.

Swift Woman Typesetter

advertising and promoting to ment for a "Greater Washingt

Can Use Both Machines

Miss Queenle Briggs, one of the rapid nanipulators of the typsetting machines n the Government Printing Office, enjoys the distinction of being an accomplished operator on the Mergenthaler and Monotype setting machines, and in addition is a skilled proofreader and job ome of the swiftest and most valua-operators of the many typsetting chines in the big printery are women,

Harry S. Hollohan Prominent; New President of Carpenters

Harry S. Hollohan, the newly elected president of the Local No. 132, Erother hood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, is one of the best-known men that will be presented soon after the oliday recess.

Out-of-town Barber: No, the oarber shops of Washington are not all union shops by any means. There are only forty-six union barber shops in this city out of the hundreds doing business. Practically all of the high-class shops are unioned, but even in this class there are non-union shops, The Barbers' New York and Boston Yards Union here is not strong. It is an affiliated body of the Central Labor

> Local No. 7, Theatrical Mechanics* Association, announces its fourth aurual entertainment for Sunday evening, Jauary 12. There will be local and professional talent in the vaudeville program. An elaborate banquet will fol-low. Prominent members of the theatrical profession in the city will be asked to take pert in the entertainment, and be the association's guests at the ban-quet. John A. Geyer has charge of the arrangements.

Orville N. Lanning, one of the oldest mployes of the Government Printing Office, who died last week, aged sevhas been dropped, and all the work office, who died has week, aged structured that has been placed at the local works will be constructed there.

This decision means much for the Union for over half a century. He learned his trade as a printer on a men employed there, assuring three regular eight-hour shifts for a long time and work for over two years. Washington merchants and landlords States.

The announcement last week of a substantial advance of wages for all of stantial advance of wages for all of the employes of the local Navy Yard, with the exception of wages for the machinists, was the cause of much re-joicing and congratulations among the men that will be benefited. The sched-ule of wages announced made no men-tion of the machinists, but the pay of those skilled mechanics will follow

The wages of imposers in the Government Frinting Office have been increased from $4.24 to $4.40 per day of eight hours.

-Walter V. Smith, Smith O'Brien, T. F. Fitzwilliams, and E. S. Pool are back fro ma business trip to New York.

W. E. Kennedy of the Building Trades advisory council, is now a regular con-tributor to the columns of the Trades Unionist, writing an interesting column or more each week giving the news of the building trades.

John Robinson, up to the time of his last illness, the oldest active printer in the country and the oldest member of Columbia Typographical Union, No. 101, died last week, aged eighty-niae

President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, has suggested that steps be taken so as to make it possible for all contracts under which the metal trades of the country work be so drawn as to expire on a certain uniform date. By this means it will be possible for these trades to organize sympathetic strikes that will be forceful. The suggestion is meeting with general indorsement. general indorsement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Phelps-Stokes, the New York Socialists, will deliver a joint address on "Socialism" this afternoon in Odd Fellows Hall, 423 Seventh street.

FUR HAT IS FEATURE OF WINTER SEASON

ing in London several years, is again enacting the name part in the London production of "Peter Pan." The Barrie play is in its fourth year at the English capital.

American playwrights are coming to the fore in London and they are the women playwrights, too. With the Sutherland Dix play in contemplation, London has placed the stamp of approval on "A Japanese Wife," Grace Griswold's charming little one act play and in the condense of a New York newspaper man, and some of the best-known men of his craft in the District, which numbers nearly 4,600 organized men. He is a notable feature of the season and a singularly attractive one. Not alone are a great many toques to be seen made of a variety of skins, there are also numbers of the bandsome and costly homes in the suburbs of this city.

Robert Buchanan, a choir singer of Montclair, and the suburbs of the principal tenor cole in Thomas W. Riley's production of "Funabashi." He is the son of a New York newspaper man, and the suburbs of the torque of the best-known men of his craft in the District, which numbers of this city, and was educated in the public schools and graduated from graduated from the public schools and graduated from graduated from the public schools and graduated from the public schools and graduated from graduated from the public schools and graduated from the public schools Robert Buchanan, a choir singer of Montelair, N. J., will have the principal tenor role in Thomas W. Riley's production of "Funabashi." He is the son of a New York newspaper man, and is said to have a remarkable voice.

"A Knight for a Day," which was a complete failure under the title of "Mile, Salile" and the management of John C. Fisher, is one of the big successes of New York. B. C. Whitney took over the musical comedy gome months ago, added new people to the cast, and brightened up the production with successful results.

Maude Adams last night bade good-by to "Peter Pan." The announcement has been made that Miss Adams will not be seen in the play again, but the future will probably tell another tale. Henry Arthur Jones, the English playwright, who is so well liked personally and professionally on this side, will spend the winter in the south of France. Mr. Jones has not been in robust health for some months, and hiphysicians have advised him to give uy work temporarily and take a rest, "Tom Jones," the fascinating English opera, which was heard here earlier in the season, will begin its road tour January 6 at the Tremont Theater, Boston.

We have put the best of all laxatives into the best possible form. That is all. Cascarets bring their results in a natural and gentle way.

Here is a dainty habit-

To keep the bowels clean.

Do it just the same as you keep your skin clean. Not by severe applications, applied at rare intervals. But by gentle and regular efforts.

It pays immensely.

Many people dread physic. They think of castor oil, of salts, and cathartics.

They shrink from the after-effects-griping and weakness.

So they postpone the dose until they are costive or bilious. Then they do the cleaning in a heroic way. That is all wrong.

Cascarets are a gentle laxative. They are just as effective as anything else, and more natural.

And they are pleasant-a candy. They are made to carry with you. Take one just as soon as you need The result is your bowels are always active. You always feel at your

Try it. You'll never again go without them.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50 cents, 25 cents and 10 Cents per Box.